

CT-Luso reinforces cooperation with Angola in audience at the Embassy in Lisbon

Representatives of the CT-Luso project met on April 16 with officials from the Angolan Embassy in Lisbon, in a hearing that allowed for strengthening cooperation between both parties and identifying ways to deepen joint work in the area of research and clinical trials. The CT-Luso delegation was made up of Maria do Céu Patrão Neves, Hélder Mota Filipe and Catarina Sobrinho.

Read more...

CT-Luso Coordination meets with Guinea-Bissau Ethics Committee

On April 16, a meeting took place between the CT-Luso coordination and Mouhammed Djicó, Permanent Secretary of the National Committee for Ethics in Health Research of Guinea-Bissau. The meeting allowed to align several of the project's strategic objectives for Guinea-Bissau and strengthen the country's partnership with the project.

Read more...

Workshop discusses challenges of emerging human and animal diseases in Portuguese-speaking countries

On April 1st, the CT Luso project organized a Workshop on Emerging Human and Animal Diseases, to mark the end of training module 4, bringing together experts from Portugal, Angola, Cape Verde, Guinea-Bissau, Mozambique and São Tomé and Príncipe to discuss the challenges and strategies in combating these pathologies.

Read more...

8th CT Luso meeting: Progress and goals for 2025

The 8th monthly meeting of the CT-Luso Project coordination took place online on April 2, 2025, with the aim of evaluating the progress of ongoing initiatives and informing about the scheduling of activities planned for the year.

Read more...